Subject: Notification of Ugadi Holiday Tomorrow (9.4.2024, Tuesday)

Dear Parents and Students,

We would like to inform you that tomorrow, April 9th, 2024, Tuesday, our school will be observing Ugadi, a significant festival celebrated in several states across India.

In light of this auspicious occasion, STEM School will remain closed tomorrow. We encourage you to take this opportunity to celebrate with your family and loved ones, embracing the traditions and customs that make this festival special.

Ugadi, the Telugu New Year celebrated by Andhra Pradesh and Telangana people, holds a deep significance in our cultural heritage. It serves as a reminder of the flavors and experiences that await us in the coming year. As we embark on this journey, STEM School extends heartfelt wishes of fortunes, prosperity, and blessings to enrich your lives.

Wishing you and your family a happy and prosperous Ugadi!

Warm regards,
STEM School

Important Note: Ramzan Holiday will be announced according to the sighting of the moon.
