

1. the Surprise poet

About the poet

Louisa May Alcott 1832-1888

was an American novelist and poet. she is best known for her novel Little women and

and its sequels Little men
and Jo's Boys. She also published her works under pseudonyms Floa Fairfax or A.M. Barnard. Little women is loosely based on her own childhood and the character Jo
on herself.

Let A surprise Hardwords

1. ~~Scrutable~~

~~Strolled~~

~~also accompanied~~

~~Scribbled~~

~~flourish~~

~~exclaiming~~

~~manuscript~~

~~exclamation~~

~~wistful~~

~~crept~~

Shakespeare

Sparkled

Believed

Queerly

Bewildered

Laurie

Bounced Bounced

Int Interesting

Condensation

Mischief

Romantic Wondering

noiselessly ✓

hailed ✓

merry ✓

mysterious ✓

manoeuvre ✓

amusement ✓

laughing ✓

adorned ✓

appearance ✓

ordeal ✓

sympathy ✓

Boasted

Indigesting

Concession

Wistful

Wondering

Romantic

Slip Pathetic

Splendid

Glimpse

Flashed

Solemnity

Excitement ✓

Unfortunately ✓

Astonishment ✓

Clustered ✓

Affectionate ✓

Jabbering ✓

Wrapping ✓

classmate
Date _____
Page _____
Q Answer in reference to conte

1) It's like her to come alone
but if she has a bad
time she'll need someone to help
her home

a) who said this and about whom did? what was their relation

a) Laurie said this about Jo
whom he watched coming out of a building where there was a dentist's chambers

as well as a newspaper office. Laurie was Jo's friend.

b. What did he assume when he saw her?

a) He assumed that Jo was coming out of dentist's chambers
and that she must have had a painful tooth extraction.

Q: Was his guess correct or not?

A) No, his guess was wrong. Jo had actually gone to submit her stories to newspaper office located in the same building.

Q: Who is Meg? About whom did she say this?

A) Meg is the elder sister of Jo. Meg said about her sister.

b. What was that girl doing which were not ladylike according to that made Meg say this?

A) Jo was a lively young person. Meg saw her outside in the garden where she and Laurie were racing each other.

c. What things did that girl do to be ladylike to Meg?

A) Meg thought that girl of

certain age should not race
that is was not ladylike

30) Who said this and to whom

A) Jo was recounting to her father

how she had submitted her

stories to the news paper

and what the editor had told

her

Jo what is the speaker plan)

a) To wanted to earn money to become Independent and to share the responsibility of running the household and helping Younger sisters. Jo's plan was to write stories and earn money by selling those stories.

b) Did she succeeded in her plan
a little? How?

Q Yes, she did succeed in her plan a little. Through the editor did not pay her anything
for the first two stories,
yet he had assured her that the time she would get recognised as a writer and
would be able to earn more
for her stories when her
first story was published.
So felt that she has

Succeeded in the first step towards her goal.

2. To a Butterfly.

Vocabulary:

1. Lodge : (here) come to rest.
2. Sanctuary : a safe place; a place where ~~parents~~ animals are given shelter.
3. Self-poised : confident
4. weary : very tired.
5. motionless : without any movement
6. forth : forward.
7. Orchard-ground : piece of land planted with fruits.

Antonyms:-

1. young X old
2. wrong X right
3. awaits X ignores.